Dear Sirs:

Applicant respectfully submits that the response to the 1st Office Action due on October 15, 2002, was timely filed with the U.S. PTO by facsimile on October 15, 2002. The response, which consisted of sixteen pages, was faxed to your attention at facsimile number 703-746-9302 with a certificate of facsimile transmission. We received a confirmation transmittal page showing that all sixteen pages were received on October 15, 2002.

Further, on January 16, 2003, I received a call from Examiner Capron stating that the case was abandoned due to the response not being timely filed within the six-month period ending January 15, 2003. Applicant then faxed a copy of the response initially sent on October 15, 2002, along with the confirmation transmittal page, to Examiner Capron at facsimile number 703-872-9302. To date, the Examiner has confirmed receipt of the outstanding response.

Please proceed with further examination of this application on the basis of: the original Response filed which has now reached the appropriate area of the U.S. PTO.

Respectfully submitted,
